

The Village of Cambridge is proud to sponsor Sunday Afternoon Concerts in the Park. Located in Memorial Park at the historic Cambridge Fair Gazebo on West Main Street. Visit downtown Cambridge on Sundays for breakfast, farmers' market and music.

JUNE 16 Music from The Cello Seminar @ Music from Salem

What could be better than the sound of three wonderful cellists playing everything from Bach to the Beatles? The Boston Conservatory Cello Trio will bring a variety of music to Sunday Concerts in the Park on June 16th. Members of the Trio are all alumni of The Boston Conservatory and Music from Salem's Cello Seminar.

JULY 14: Athena Burke and friends

Athena is a gifted singer-songwriter who has devoted her life to channeling and manifesting the divine through her heartfelt music. Athena's inspired songcraft, powerfully evocative voice and artfully understated piano arrangements offer a personal and impassioned take on love and life. Athena's music is a mix of bluesy jazz, folk, pop, rock and world beats all coming straight from spirit."

JULY 28: John Kribs with friends

John Kribs is a musician's musician. He plays a variety of stringed instruments with an eclectic range of musical styles. He is known for his bands The Racquette River Rounders, Johnny and the Triumphs, in addition to his solo performances. John has played with the McKrells and others in many of the famous venues of the area, including Café Lena and The Parting Glass in Saratoga. We are thrilled to have him on our schedule.

AUGUST 4: Roadside Blues Band

Anyone who has seen the Roadside Blues Band perform knows that not only are they the most authentic and deeply rooted blues musicians in these parts, but that they are the best of friends as well. Approaching the anniversary of their twelfth year together, Billy Lanchantin (guitar), Michael Krauss (harmonica), Mitch Throop (bass) and Peter Maine (drums) have an organic quality to their playing and singing that is playful yet inspiring.
